APPLICANTS FOR YUMA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT SOUGHT

PHOENIX – The Office of Governor Janet Napolitano is currently accepting judicial applications for a vacancy on the Yuma County Superior Court. This vacancy is being created by the retirement of Presiding Judge Tom C. Cole, effective June 30, 2007.

Applicants will be subject to a background check and public comment. Governor Napolitano may conduct interviews of some candidates in late May or early June. Candidates must be residents of Yuma County and members of the Arizona State Bar. If selected, the new judge should be prepared to take the bench Monday, July 2.

Applications are available on the Governor's Web site, www.azgovernor.gov and must be submitted by 5:00 p.m. Friday, May 25.
